Meeting called to order at 6:44p

- Carole Bradfield shared 7-$50 Giant Gift Cards were to be given out as part of box filling for the Food Pantry Boxes for the 2 weeks around the Easter Period.
- Heifer Project- We are not participating due to money going towards the Sound System upgrade.
- Budget is set for 2017- The budget was talked about at the Congregational Forum.
- Community Outreach- Still working on some type of flyer that could be delivered door to door. Frank shared that he felt very leary to pass out our current flyer. Terry Wueschinski from our Hospitality Team is currently working on a new flyer.
- John spoke about new electronicsignage for the front of our Church to replace current sign.
- John is to pull Township rules and regulations for the electronicsignage.
- Glen suggested filling backpacks for the upcoming school year. We spoke about providing supplies for York City School District. We spoke about going to Walmart to purchase supplies, along with reaching out to the Congregation some time at the beginning of the Summer to start collecting. We are discuss a date to announce and deadline of when we would like supplies. This information would be shared on Enews and other outlets.
- Brittney was to contact Barb Wueschinski about her contact from York City School District for supplies needed.
- There was a discussion of giving to the Middle School next to the Church, as well.
