

Witness Team Meeting Minutes

Tuesday, May 9, 2017

In attendance: Frank Leaman, Glenn and Anna Miller, John Anderson and Brittney Beckwith.

Meeting called to order at 6:39P

- Frank to start canvassing neighborhoods for VBS- he shared that he would be doing this to become aware of needs.
- Frank shared at April's Leadership Team Meeting that the Witness Team would be in charge of Trick or Trunk this year.
- Frank shared that he thought it may be a good idea to take guided tours of the CDC during our Trick or Trunk time this year.
- We would ask CDC Staff to lead the tours.
- Frank suggested that in addition to the Easter Egg Hunt that we host for the CDC, that we also host an Easter Egg Hunt specifically for the community. This would give us an opportunity to reach out to the community and help us to potentially grow as a church community. We would also give tours of the CDC at this event. Frank brought in some toys and different games as examples of what we could have at the Hunt.
- We went over the updated Welcome Packet. Frank would like to canvas neighborhoods to distribute Welcome Packets. We may be able to discover other needs.
- York First has received many mailings about giving- we will not be giving at this point due to funds going towards the sound system upgrade.
- John had mentioned that we are currently receiving estimates for a new emergency boiler system.
- Electronic Signage- John will be in contact again with the Township in regards to rules, regs and guidelines.
